Getting ready to stock up on Neem for the season and website neemsources.com (Ahimsa) isn't working. Is this a temporary problem with the website or are they not selling anymore? There isn't anyone else close on price.

Monday morning, it's snowing, and still I can connect readily to the Neem Resources website. I would hear if Usha is changing course. The availability of pure neem and karanja oil should not be a problem for the 2019 season.
