I'd like to try using some Oxidate 2.0 this year, just as a single dormant spray. For our little 3/4 A., that amounts to about 3 C. This is far less than the 2.5 gallons I see listed online.

Is anyone in the central Maryland area buying Oxidate 2.0 in bulk, and be willing to resell me about 3 C? I'd be happy to pay twice the listed price of $2.75 per cup or whatever you think sounds right. Thank you.
